

Job Title: Trainer-Partnerships & Training Vertical

Reports to: Partnerships & Training Vertical Head

FMCH Vertical Component: Partnerships & Training Vertical

Position: Full-time

Specific areas of responsibility

- Work closely with training manager to provide technical input in developing communication materials for trainings, intervention and programme activities.
- Coordination with partner organisations for training requirements. Conducting needs assessment, conceptualizing and designing trainings for partners. Support in developing proposal and concept note for prospective partner.
- Assist training manager to assess learning needs to target beneficiaries on the use of good health and dietary practices.
- Will contribute to develop and update training curriculum, innovative training materials (FAQs, Modules, Presentations etc.) and teaching aids required for trainings.
- Facilitate or co-facilitate nutrition related trainings to build capacity to support programme activities related to e.g. First 1000 days, CMAM, IYCF and other health and nutrition components.
- Capacity building of FMCH internal team.
- Support in post training knowledge assessment and evaluating feedback for developing training report.
- Documentation (Salesforce updates, presentations, compilation of feedback and reports) of trainings conducted.
- Contribute in developing the monthly/quarterly/annual partnerships and training report.

Expectations

- In-depth knowledge of nutrition specifically community nutrition and MCH issues.
- Interest and Knowledge on Public Health issues.
- Independently creating training modules.
- Excellent trainer. Experience in facilitation and training would be an asset.
- Excellent oral and written communication skills - English and Hindi.
- Computer proficiency in Word, PowerPoint, Excel is a prerequisite.
- Ready to travel for trainings within and outside Maharashtra

Remuneration

Remuneration will be given as per the experience and market standards.